

Susan Nash & Ryan Moore

Snash30@stanford.edu

rymoore@stanford.edu

October 4, 2020

FACT-CHECKING RESOURCES

Factchecking websites:

Snopes, <https://www.snopes.com>

Factcheck, <https://www.factcheck.org>

Politifact, <https://www.politifact.com>

Metafact, <https://metafact.io>

COVID-19-specific factchecking

World Health Organization:

<https://www.who.int/emergencies/diseases/novel-coronavirus-2019/advice-for-public/myth-busters>

(Agence France Presse) AFP's COVID-19 verification hub:

<https://factcheck.afp.com/afps-coronavirus-verification-hub>

A non-profit organization providing educational content and training for digital media literacy tailored to teens and older adults: MediaWise

Overview: <https://www.poynter.org/mediawise/>

Free online course to educate adults 50+ yrs on misinformation and how to fact-check. (enrollment open now):

<https://www.poynter.org/shop/self-directed-course/mediawise-for-seniors-hands-on-lessons-on-separating-fact-and-fiction-online/>

Collection of articles and stories on deciphering misinformation and fact checking:

https://getpocket.com/explore/item/u-s-election-2020-how-to-spot-and-fight-misinformation?utm_source=pocket-newtab