

Cupertino Library Foundation Presents

Cyber Security Talk Series

“Safety Amidst Crimes and Scams” – A Fireside Chat with Capt. Rich Urena from Santa Clara County Sheriff’s Office

1 in 10 adult fall victim to phone and email scams. Scam artists are expected to steal over $2 billion in 2020. Please join us for a conversation with Capt. Rich Urena and continue to get educated and protect yourself from evolving threats. This event will provide an opportunity to hear from our Sheriff's Office the current crime trends, crimes and scams targeting seniors, crimes being investigated by FBI, as well as tips on personal safety

Sunday November 15, 2020
2:00 -3:30 pm
REGISTER at
<https://tinyurl.com/CLF-Safety>
for Zoom Information

About the Speaker

Captain Rich Urena of Santa Clara County Sheriff’s Office is currently the West Valley Patrol Division Commander who manages law enforcement services for the cities of Cupertino, Saratoga, Los Altos Hills, and the western unincorporated areas of Santa Clara County. He has experience in many assignments, which includes investigating crimes of fraud and scams targeting seniors . He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Leadership and is a graduate of the prestigious FBI National Academy in Quantico, Virginia.

Register at <https://tinyurl.com/CLF-Safety>
Website: www.cupertino.libraryfoundation.org email: cyberseries@cupertino.libraryfoundation.org